

Declaration of waiver by the vehicle owner

(Only required, if the applicant or driver is not the owner of the vehicle to be used, with the entry application)

- I agree with the participation, with the application for an entry with the vehicle described in more detail in the events of GmbH and declare the waiving of claims of any nature for damage, which occurs in connection with the event, particularly against Baja-Event GmbH, their directors, their employees, sponsors and suppliers, authorities, racing services and other persons, who are connected with the organisation of the event; the land owners; the body responsible for road-building, in case damage has been caused by the condition of the roads, tracks, areas including accessories to be used for the event; and the employees and assistants of all the named persons and organisations,
- except for injury to life, body or health arising from intentional or grossly negligent infringement of duties – also of a legal representative or employee of the persons whose liability is excluded – and except for other damage arising from intentional or grossly negligent infringement of duties – also of a legal representative or employee of the persons whose liability is excluded;
- against the applicants, drivers, keepers, owners of the other vehicles being used, the assistants of the participants given in the registration and the other participants as well as against the applicants, drivers of the vehicle made available by me (different specific agreements between applicant and driver have priority!), I waive claims of any nature for damage, which occurs in connection with the racing competition (untimed, timed training, qualification training, warm-up, race),
- except for injury to life, body or health arising from intentional or grossly negligent infringement of duties – also of a legal representative or employee of the persons whose liability is excluded – and except for other damage arising from intentional or grossly negligent infringement of duties – also of a legal representative or employee of the persons whose liability is excluded.
- The waiver of liability applies to claims from whatever legal grounds, particularly for compensation claims arising from contractual or non-contractual liability and for claims arising from impermissible actions. Tacit exclusions of liability remain unaffected by the above liability exclusion clause.
